

My family business is being ruined by disputes. What can I do?

In this article, we explore the repercussions of not setting up the necessary legal fallbacks your business may need should you end up in a dispute with a partner or family member. Jacqui looks at the different options and which categories you will automatically fall into if you take no action at all which you can read here.

by Jacqui McGuirk

Flexible working: Know your rights

Many businesses have embraced new and different ways of working, including remote and hybrid working patterns, four-day weeks, and more. As a result, employees and organisations are reaping the benefits, yet others are slower to adapt. Julie outlines what employment law says about flexible working in this article.

By Julie Temple

Buying and selling - The Stressors!

The conveyancing process is full of different stressors, but at Birkett Long, we aim to ease the pressure for our clients. Sophie takes us through some of the ways in which we achieve that in her article.

By Sophie Partridge

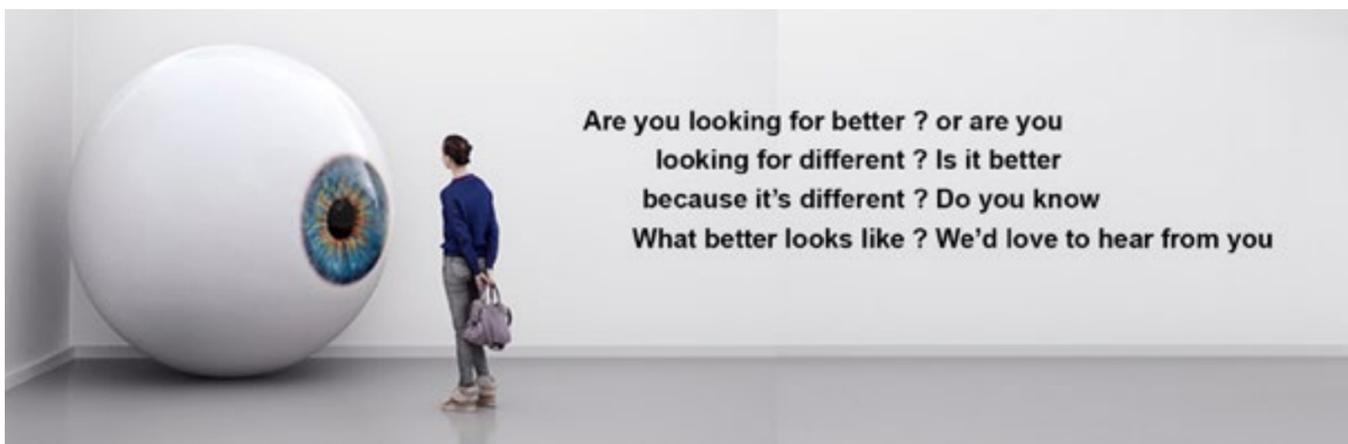

The importance of the ISA

An Individual Savings Account (ISA) is a tax-efficient method of saving and can come in various forms. In recent years, more products have become available to invest in under an ISA wrapper to appeal to more consumers. Find out more in Ben's article.

by Ben Judge

look

For some free advice just register

Are you looking for better ? or are you looking for different ? Is it better because it's different ? Do you know What better looks like ? We'd love to hear from you

In case you missed it

- Why a text or social media message isn't enough to make a will
- A rise in long-term sickness absence is hitting the UK workforce
- Legal 500 2024 - the results
- The divorce statistics: how long does it take?